For the second year in a row, the Shepherdstown Rotary Club has awarded a $1,000 Rotary Reads grant to the Shepherdstown Public Library and the Shepherdstown Day Care Center. The funds will be used to bring award-winning children's author Anna Smucker to Shepherdstown on April 14 to conduct read aloud sessions for more than 80 local pre-school children. The library session is at 1 pm in the Children's Department. Our sincere thanks to the Rotary Club and it's members for its programs that promote reading and early literacy in our community.

And they're off ... and up for auction!

The 2015 running of the Kentucky Derby is coming up fast! What to wear? We have the answer! Acclaimed local author Nora Roberts is auctioning off many of the fashionable fascinator hats she has worn to past derby races, with a percentage of the proceeds to benefit our library programming. Follow the link to see which hats are available now for auction on eBay through the Turn the Page/Nora Roberts Charity Hat Auction!
